
All scores use 3,688 paired points per hour; 10 mm per one-hour window is a study threshold, not an official warning class.